CLAIMSPRO INC. COMPLETES ACQUISITION OF BROUWER CLAIMS CANADA

Toronto—ClaimsPro Inc., Canada's leading independent adjusting company, is pleased to announce that it has completed the acquisition of Brouwer Claims Canada & Co. Ltd. ('Brouwer'), a Vancouver-based independent adjusting firm that has been servicing Canadian clients for over twenty-five years.

The transaction aligns with ClaimsPro's strategy to build the most comprehensive claims adjusting company from coast to coast. This acquisition will add further strength to our already deep talent pool of adjusters. In addition we will proudly be offering services as ClaimsPro with many new locations in Canada. ClaimsPro now has over 1050 insurance professionals solely focused on delivering maximum value to our customers.

For more information about ClaimsPro, visit www.scm-claimspro.ca.

Managing claims on behalf of Canada's largest insurers and self-insured corporations since 1986, ClaimsPro provides its clients with the most comprehensive claims management technology and business processes available in the market today. The company's success continues to be based on its investment in technology and the training and education of its claims professionals.
